

Pakistan is one of the world largest producer of the finest long grain aromatic basmati rice. Basmati is the king of rice is held in the highest regard world over, among all the other varieties of rice, none have the distinctive long grains or the subtle aroma for which this grain is considered so special, this also justifies the premium this rice commands against all other rice of the world. It takes birth in the most fertile valleys and plains of Pakistan. It is harvested by hand with delicate care, aged to perfection and then processed.

Main Types of Basamti & Non-Basamti Rice

Our basmati rice and non-basmati rice is in huge demand worldwide, there are many rice varieties are introduced in the market from time to time but the following are main exportable basmati & non-basmati rice varieties of Pakistan.

SUPER BASMATI RICE

This Super Basmati is liked for its flavor, taste, aroma, easy cooking and separate grains upon cooking. It carries natural aroma and delicate nutty flavor that is peculiar to this variety. It is also called perfume rice in certain local languages.

Super Basmati Rice is from the selected regions of Punjab and Sindh province of Pakistan. Often referred to as the 'king of rice', this recipe of Super calls for a blend that entails affordable pricing with quick movements in wholesale and supermarket stores, we carefully select grains, evaluating the soil of region, grain length, natural aroma, color and moisture level that entails great cooking results.

Specifications

Average Grain Length: 7.4 MM

Moisture Content: 13% Max

Chalky Grains: 3% Max

Foreign Matter: 0.2% Max

Polishing Grade: Double/Pearl Finish/Silky Polished

Paddy Grain: 0.2 % Max

Broken Grains: 2% Max

Under-milled & Red-striped: 2% Max

1121 BASMATI RICE

1121 Basmati rice is worldly famous for its very long grain length (8.5-9mm), extremely good cooking and delicate taste, the grains remain separate and fluffy even after they are cooked, this variety of rice is not very old but has gained a very good market in just few years.

The 1121 Basmati comes from ethereal snow-fed valleys, it is a real gift of nature and have a divine taste. 1121 basmati is exceptionally tasty, extra-long and fragrant.

Specifications

Average Grain Length: 8.5 MM

Moisture Content: 13% Max

Chalky Grains: 3% Max

Foreign Matter: 0.2% Max

Polishing Grade: Double/Pearl Finish/Silky Polished

Paddy Grain: 0.2 % Max

Broken Grains: 2% Max

Under-milled & Red-striped: 2% Max

D-98 BASMATI RICE

Pakistani Basmati D-98 is a successor and is famous for its very attractive aroma and cooking all over the world. D-98 Rice is produced from the Sindh Province of Pakistan. The world also recognizes it as the Sindhi Basmati.

It has a demand across the globe due to its long length, rich pearl white color and highly aromatic grain. Its aroma bears the characteristics of Basmati Rice.

Specifications

Average Grain Length: 6.8 MM

Moisture Content: 13% Max

Chalky Grains: 3% Max

Foreign Matter: 0.2% Max

Polishing Grade: Double/Pearl Finish/Silky Polished

Paddy Grain: 0.2 % Max

Broken Grains: 2% Max

Under-milled & Red-striped: 2% Max

PK-386 Long Grain

PK-386 long grains is Non-Basmati variety of rice grown in the province of Punjab-Pakistan, bearing similarities with Super Kernel Basmati rice with respect to looks and cooking.

PK-386 is non-sticky rice made up of thin and slender kernels that does not have any aroma, while its grain length is relatively longer than other Non-Basmati varieties. Due to its superior cooking, it is hugely popular in the Middle East and African markets.

Specifications

Average Grain Length: 7.4 MM

Moisture Content: 13% Max

Chalky Grains: 3% Max

Foreign Matter: 0.2% Max

Polishing Grade: Double/Pearl Finish/Silky Polished

Paddy Grain: 0.2 % Max

Broken Grains: 2% Max

Under-milled & Red-striped: 2% Max

IRRI - 6 RICE

IRRI-6 is the long grain non-basmati rice has long soft grains, Irri-6 rice is non-basmati rice, it is known for its economical prices and excellent cooking properties.

Export of IRRI-6 has grown a lot over the time.

This is bestselling Pakistani rice all over the world.

Specifications

Average Grain Length: 6.4 MM

Moisture Content: 13% Max

Chalky Grains: 3% Max

Foreign Matter: 0.2% Max

Polishing Grade: Double/Pearl Finish/Silky Polished

Paddy Grain: 0.2 % Max

Broken Grains: 5% Max

Under-milled & Red-striped: 2% Max

IRRI - 9 RICE

IRRI-9 is yet another type of long grain non-basmati rice that is produced in Pakistan, It has a long and narrow opaque grain that stays in shaped even after it is cooked and many people prefer the muggy touch this rice has to offer.

It is mostly grown in Sindh and Punjab regions of Pakistan. These regions have the best climate to grow IRR-9 rice.

Specifications

Average Grain Length: 6 MM

Moisture Content: 14% Max

Chalky Grains: 4% Max

Foreign Matter: 0.5% Max

Polishing Grade: Double/Pearl Finish/Silky Polished

Paddy Grain: 0.2 % Max

Broken Grains: 5% Max

Under-milled & Red-striped: 2% Max

MOQ: Minimum Order Quantity for these product is 25 tons

Delivery time: Within 20 days of Payment

Shipping Method: C&F, FOB

Port: Karachi